Andrea Phelps McKey Installed as National Association of REALTORS® Regional Vice President for 2011

Baton Rouge, LA— The National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) installed its 2011 Region 10 Vice President, Andrea McKey of Coldwell Banker One in Baton Rouge, and additional officers during its Conference & Expo held at the Morial Convention Center in New Orleans on November 4. The ceremony recognized the 2011 leadership from the over one million real estate licensees that are members of the NAR.

McKey will serve as NAR Region 10 Vice President representing Texas and Louisiana and will work with both Louisiana REALTORS® and Texas REALTORS® throughout 2011 to receive input on their challenges and potential changes to legislative efforts and policy, which will be conveyed to NAR for implementation.

Additionally, McKey served as the chairman of the NAR Conference & Expo, which consisted of a year of detailed planning for headline speakers, education programming and coordination of one of the largest trade shows in the world. Over 20,000 REALTORS from throughout the nation converged on New Orleans for the event. McKey stated, "To have one of the largest conventions in the country held in New Orleans was a boost to the city's economy. The Realtor members were impressed with the progress of the city since the convention was held here four years ago."

McKey is the owner, along with her husband David McKey, of Coldwell Banker One. Previously, she has been honored as Louisiana REALTORS® Realtor of the Year and has held numerous positions with both Louisiana REALTORS® and the Greater Baton Rouge Association of REALTORS®, including President.
